

Managerial Auditing Journal

MAJ – Assurance, Management Performance and Governance

MAJ – APIRA Special Issue

Managerial Auditing Journal, recently relaunched as MAJ – Assurance, Management Performance and Governance (MAJ), is an international journal that advances knowledge and research in areas that include the regulatory and professional frameworks of corporate and public sector governance, ethics, risk and management performance from multi-disciplinary perspectives, with a focus on audit and assurance.

Led by joint editors Professors Barry J. Cooper (Deakin University), Philomena Leung (Macquarie University) and Nonna Martinov-Bennie (Macquarie University), the journal occupies a niche in the international market by drawing on new knowledge and practice through the dissemination of high quality research and dialogue between academics and practitioners. Supported by a distinguished Editorial Board, the journal upholds high standards and attracts a wide international audience, with in excess of 289,000 articles downloaded in 2011, predominantly from the USA, the UK, Malaysia and Australia. With access rates highest in the USA and UK, the journal's current author profile consists mainly of authors from North America, followed by Asia and Europe.

MAJ – APIRA Special Issue

The editorial team at MAJ will be working closely with the organizers of APIRA to launch a MAJ – APIRA Special Issue. Authors whose papers are accepted for presentation at APIRA are invited to submit their paper to this Special Issue. Presented papers in the areas of assurance, management performance and governance will be considered for publication in the Special Issue. The editors are happy to receive and select suitable papers for further refereeing so that five to six papers will be published in this Special Issue of MAJ. Any papers that are not published in the Special Issue will be considered for publication in MAJ's regular issues.

Submission instructions

Should you be interested in submitting your paper accepted for presentation to the APIRA Conference to the MAJ – APIRA Special Issue, we kindly request that you send it to the editorial team at maj.editors@gmail.com accompanied by a copy of the official APIRA acceptance letter. Submitted papers should be in the form of an MS Word file, marked MAJ – APIRA, attached to the e-mail. The format of the papers must follow the submission guidelines of MAJ, available at: www.emeraldinsight.com/products/journals/author\_guidelines.htm?id=maj

Each paper will be reviewed by the editors and, if judged suitable for this publication, will be sent to two referees for a double blind peer review. One of the editors, if possible, will attend the presentation of the papers at APIRA.

Please note that the deadline for submission of papers to APIRA is 31 January 2013. To submit a paper, please go to www.apira2013.org/submission/ Acceptance of the papers for MAJ – APIRA Special Issue will be announced subsequent to the conference.
